On the 5th November 2016 the Basin View Daylight Freemasons Lodge revealed all to the general public, as they opened their doors and displayed a lot of the things freemasons do in their communities... They are not a Secret Society, although they do have secrets and those secrets are known by all of their members.

To be a Mason you need to be a free man and to have the conviction to extend your hand in friendship, to those less fortunate than yourself and promote goodwill and happiness, wherever you tread!

MONTHLY COLUMN OF THE FEDERAL MEMBER FOR GILMORE

ANN SUDMALIS MP

The most important role of a Member of Parliament is to represent the interests of their electorate. However in a time of social media and vocal pressure groups conducting email and letter writing campaigns, finding out what most people really think about issues can be difficult.

In our modern society there is so much noise threatening to drown out the voices of ordinary, everyday Australians. To help ensure more people in the local electorate have a say when it comes to the issues facing our society, and there is a better flow of information into my office and through to Parliament in Canberra, I am launching Your Gilmore Opinion Network on Saturday, December 10 and if you sign up to be part of the network of people sharing views on the news and issues facing the nation, you have the chance to win an iPad Mini.

Here is your chance to make sure your voice is heard when it comes to the decisions facing the Australian Government. We have a great deal to do as a government and nation - getting the country's finances on an even footing so future generations will not be lumbered with crippling debt, ensuring education systems meet the needs of a changing society, providing the best possible health care to our residents, protecting our borders in a world that has turmoil in so many places, and creating the economic conditions in which businesses are confident to expand and employ more people.

There is also a lot to be done to ensure all Australians are able to benefit from the nation's economic prosperity, and that we look after those who are struggling for whatever reason. It is a big job, with many different sectors needing financial support. Your opinions will help prioritise the issues for our region. I firmly believe that no single person has all the answers, and the more people there are having a say on an issue, the more likely we are to get the best possible result.

So with Your Gilmore Opinion Network I will be regularly emailing subscribers to get their views on issues facing the nation or the local area. I'm asking people to register for Your Gilmore Opinion Network on www.annsudmalismp.com.au or by sending their names, email and residential addresses, and best contact numbers to ann.sudmalis.mp@aph.gov.au.

All people who register by Tuesday, December 6, will be in the draw to win some great prizes including an iPad Mini. With Christmas coming up, this could be a great gift for someone special. The prizes will be presented when Your Gilmore Opinion Network is officially launched in Nowra on Saturday, December 10, as part of a family fun afternoon in Nowra's Harry Sawkins Park featuring games, a jumping castle, face painting and animals from the Shoalhaven Zoo.

I am working with Touched by Olivia which is conducting a barbecue to raise money to build an all-inclusive playground at Mollymook. The fun and games kick off at 1pm, so please join us for an enjoyable afternoon, or register to give your feedback through the Gilmore Opinion Network.

In Honour of WAYNE WALKER

On the 3rd December 2016, I was privileged to have been able to photograph the Commissioning Ceremony, of the Dedication of the Marine Rescue Jervis Bay, rescue vessel JB 20 "WAYNE WALKER 11".

Wayne Walker was a Skipper First, a Boat Commander, a Unit Commander, an Achiever and was every bit an Officer and a Gentleman in both; the Royal Volunteer Coastal Patrol and later Marine Rescue New South Wales, Jervis Bay Unit where he dedicated his time "To Saving Lives at Sea" and ensuring that the Jervis Bay Unit was always on the ready to respond to any emergency or non emergency concern of the public.

Wayne would have been pleased with the long roll-call at the presentation, As Michael Mullins, Deputy Unit Commander, stepped forward as the MC on the day and calling forward many distinguished guests... Kevin Hill, Unit Commander - Stacey Tannos Commissioner Marine Rescue NSW - Amanda Findley, Mayor Shoalhaven City Council - James Glissan ESM, QC Chairman of the Board of Marine Rescue NSW - Philip Oliver, Chaplain Marine Rescue NSW - The Hon Shelley Hancock, Member for South Coast and Representing the Minister for Emergency Services.

A further large contingent of Distinguished guests, officers from the Defence & Police Force, Emergency Services, Members from Jervis Bay & other Marine Rescue Units and a gathering from the general Public were in attendance.

We are in SAFE HANDS!

Clr Jo Gash, flanked by Ann Sudmalis MP and Shelley Hancock, Member for South Coast, heard Mrs Gash ask for an application form to Join Marine Rescue as an operational member, I heard it also... Just for the record!

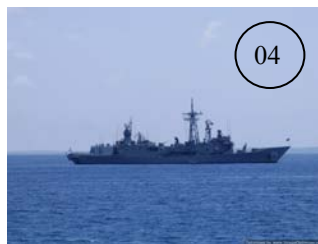

What a beautiful sight to see a few of our RAN ships berthed in the safe waters of Jervis Bay.

Montreal GOLDFIELD... You may very well ask... WHERE?

7km North of Bermagui on the beautiful SAPPHIRE COAST, where Kate and I recently spent a few days, just coming back to reality and doing what we love the most!

Montreal Goldfield was the site of a gold rush in the truest sense of the word between 1880 and 1883. Learn about the fascinating history of the area from your tour guide and envisage the frenzied activity of life on the goldfield.

The first claim was registered on 17th September 1880 and by mid October the same year Montreal was bigger than Bermagui. Diggings extended from Camel Rock in the north to Keating Headland in the south.

Admission to the Montreal Goldfield is by Guided Tour only. Tours leave site at 2pm daily, 1 1/4hrs. Coach Tours welcome anytime. For information & bookings contact the Bermagui Visitor information centre (02) 6493 3054.

On the Beat with Senior Constable Anthony Jory

It's one month until New Year's Day which means you should have a New Year's resolution to pledge on the 01/01/2017.

What's that I hear you say? You are sick and tired of having to think of a New Year's resolution every year! Do not despair; help is on its way. I have taken the hard work away from you and compiled a number of New Year resolutions which will take away the need for you to even think about the topic. This in turn will give you more time to do the important things over Christmas such as sleeping on the couch or sleeping by the pool or eating and drinking (In moderation).

The resolutions are suited for everyone, male or female. Young or old. I know by now that you are very excited about this so I will put you out of your misery.

New Year's Resolutions

1. I will take all my valuables out of the car when I am not using it.
2. I will lock the car doors whenever I am not using it.
3. I will not leave my purse or handbag unsecured in the shopping trolley when I am shopping
4. I will not leave my mobile phone out where someone can take it.
5. I will be more aware of scams on the computer
6. I will not give out my personal details
7. I will not get drunk and assault my partner
8. I will abide by the AVO
9. I will report a crime either through "000", Crime stoppers or the Police assistance line (131444) or the Police portal. I will not ignore it and rely on others to do it.

So there you have it, 9 little gems that will help you to reduce crime in your community. See you next week.
