Greg Watson for over 40 years, has continued to fight to get the best of possible outcomes for the community. He once said the real enjoyment that he gets out of being part of Local Government in the Shoalhaven, is being able to help other people solve their problems and also to make the Shoalhaven a better place for all.

One of his many milestones was the sale of a piece of swamp at the back of Stocklands Nowra to Leda Holdings for $19 million, this when combined with the compensation from National Parks and other property sales, gave Greg a war chest of over $30 million, which facilitated the construction of the Shoalhaven Entertainment Centre, as well as part funding a number of other projects!

On the 5th July 2018 we should have all been very proud of the contribution that Greg Watson gave towards the construction of the Shoalhaven Entertainment Centre during one of his Mayoral Terms in office when construction for the state-of-the-art, Shoalhaven Entertainment Centre began in September 2006 and the Centre was officially opened on Saturday 5 July 2008. It is considered one of the most innovative venues in Australia and on the 5th July 2018 This Modern Lady was 10 years young!

Kate and Dennis Williams thank you Greg Watson for your contribution and foresight, to have understood the pleasures, that the Shoalhaven Entertainment Centre, would give to the visitors and residents of our great city of the Shoalhaven... We know... We've been there often! And we have never been disappointed.

From the Shoalhaven Entertainment Centre Team

CELEBRATING
10 YEARS

The desire for a Cultural Centre was first voiced as far back as 1979. Following the completion of construction of the new Administration Centre in Nowra, Council moved to explore costings and design of a proposed Cultural Centre to be sited next to and connecting with the northern wing of the Administration Centre building. With growing community respect and interest in the arts, the establishment of Council's Arts Board, and with the establishment and success of the Shoalhaven City Arts Centre the time seemed right to realise the dream.

Construction for the state-of-the-art Shoalhaven Entertainment Centre began in September 2006 and the Centre was officially opened on Saturday 5 July 2008. It is considered one of the most innovative venues in Australia.

It is general knowledge where the Bay and Basin Police Station will be built, in SANCTUARY POINT.

On the 13th June 2018 Assistant Commissioner Peter Barrie and South Coast District Commander Superintendent Stephen Hegarty, teamed up with Shelley Hancock MP, Member for South Coast and Inspector Deb O'Reilly, who will be the officer in charge of the new police station, where they turned the first sod before construction begins on the State of the Art Police Station.

It was great to see Inspector O'Reilly Digging In and making her mark on where the new Bay and Basin Police Station will be built... Congratulations Inspector and welcome to Sanctuary Point!

ANN SUDMALIS MP

Federal Member for Gilmore

59 Junction Street (next to the Nowra School of Arts), Nowra, NSW, 2541

PO Box 1009

Fax: (02) 4423 1785

Just last week the Turnbull Government's income tax relief passed the parliament, representing a huge win for the 58,134 working Australians in Gilmore. This is your hard-earned money.

After seven years, the 37 cent tax bracket will be eliminated entirely, meaning 94% of taxpayers will pay no more than 32.5 cents in the dollar.

For workers, this means as your income increases over time, you will be protected from "bracket creep" and not pushed into higher tax brackets.

This month Gilmore was named as one of only ten regions across the country to receive $1 million for a new locally based Employment Initiative fund.

The new Local Employment Initiative Fund will directly support jobs development through mentoring programs and the upskilling of people looking for work so that they are job ready.

For over five years, I have worked to deliver funding for the new Nowra Bridge which is now fully funded. This project will cut traffic congestion, create local jobs and improve safety on our roads in the Shoalhaven.

However, much more still needs to be done, and we can work together to secure further funding for the Princes Highway.

Some community suggestions have included the East Nowra Sub-Arterial, Jervis Bay Road Intersection, works at Wandandian, upgrades to Forest Road intersection and completion of Batemans Bay Link Road. Visit my website to nominate your priorities.

Through the Mobile Black Spot Program, East Lynne's new mobile phone base station has been switched on helping to improve phone reception.

This will make sure local residents and road users have access to a more reliable communication network especially in the event of an emergency.

Feel free to contact my office should you have any queries, and as always - together we can achieve!

Kind Regards

From the Office of the Hon Shelley Hancock MP - 2018 NSW Carers Awards

I write to encourage you to nominate local carers or organisations supporting carers in your community for the 2018 NSW Carers Awards.

Carers are everyday people in our community. They are family members, friends, neighbours and work colleagues. It is important that we send a strong message to carers within our local community that we appreciate all they do.

The NSW Carers Awards recognises the remarkable contribution of unpaid carers, organisations, employers and carer groups from across the state.

Nominations for the NSW Carers Awards close on Friday 10 August 2018.

For information about the Awards and how to nominate, please visit www.careforacarers.nsw.gov.au or contact my office on (02) 44210222

Purchases over the Internet

A scam recently seen in the area involves purchases over the internet (no surprise). If you find a new item for sale on the internet at an incredibly low price think twice about it then forget it. If it's too good to be true, it normally is.

Picture this, you want to purchase an item over the internet. I will call you "A", the person selling an allegedly brand-new item to you for a very low price will be called "B" and a legitimate company selling the same item that you require for the RRP which is double of what you are paying will be called "C".

I will write this slowly so you can keep up. "A" sends money to "B" via BPay and gives "B" all relevant details such as delivery address, email address, phone number etc. "B" gets the money and keeps it. "B" places an internet order in relation to the exact same item that "A" requested to "C" and after using a dodgy credit card the order is delivered to "A". After the dust has settled, "A" has got the item. "B" has got the money from "A" and "C" has no item and no money.

The fraud is reported to police and initial investigations seem to indicate that "A" is the offender by supplying false details to "C". However, because "A" kept copies of all transactions and other things such as receipts, web addresses and email addresses, "A" is discounted as the person of interest.

After this the trail goes cold and "C" is the one that loses. You must keep vigilant when surfing the world-wide net. Don't become the subject of a future "On The Beat".

Remember: Do not Drink and Drive and you can Dob in a Druggie any time you like, by contacting Nowra Police or ringing Crime Stoppers.

As always, in case of emergency, call (000)
