*Breaking
News for the Bay and Basin*

At 9.45 am. Friday 13th March 2015 The Hon Shelley Hancock MP, Speaker of the Legislative Assembly, Member for South Coast / Parliament NSW

Introduced
the NSW State Minister for Police and Emergency Services

The Hon. Stuart Laurence AYRES, MP.

To an audience in attendance,
who announced...

A re-elected Baird Government would construct a new Police Station in the Bay & Basin. The current Police station at Huskisson, after 35 years of service, will be relocated to a new site. A location near the present Crossroads Rural Fire Service at Vincentia is high on the list, although other areas will be considered.

Minister Ayres and Shelley Hancock MP also announced $4.2 million towards a new ambulance station for the Bay & Basin .

It is my opinion, that this very fine lady, who has worked very hard for the South Coast and for this Police Station, has probably pulled off one of the most talked about and controversially debated topic, on the minds of every concerned citizen in the Shoalhaven Bay and Basin, where we call home!

Thank you Shelley Hancock MP and thank you to our Shoalhaven LAC Police Superintendant Joe Cassar for the hard miles he has put in and in particular in the Bay & Basin.

To the Police Minister Stuart Ayers MP your visit to our region has been most welcomed and we thank you for your time and involvement in bringing this hotly disputed issue, to a favourable conclusion! Should the Baird Government be re-elected.
