Day 1 START OF THE SHOALHAVEN CANCER CARE CENTRE.

Construction work commenced on the 26th March 2012 for the Cancer Care Centre and Car Park, which will become the home of the SHOALHAVEN LIN-EAR ACCELERATOR.

The effects from cancer, at some time, will usually affect us all, if not from cancer itself, then from the attachment we have with someone we know with cancer.

In our local area, the Bay and Basin Cancer Support Group members know of the additional strain put on themselves and their love ones as they are compelled to travel the long road to Wollongong or even Sydney where their life given treatment is administered by the caring Oncology and Radiotherapy staff at these wonderful Cancer Care Centres. It must be a blessing for those, and so many other cancer patients, throughout the Shoalhaven and surrounding districts, to know that in the near future, their long road for treatment will be made much shorter, when the Shoalhaven Centre is commissioned and treatment commences in Nowra.

Mr Richard (Dick) Manwarring, who is the Coordinator for the fund raising events of the Code C Benefit nights and his dedicated support team, are on track to raise over $45,000 for the Bay & Basin Cancer Support Group, who will provide two quiet rooms at the new Cancer Centre, one for the Oncology and one for the Radiotherapy Departments. The third Benefit night will take place at the St Georges Basin Country Club, in Sanctuary Point on the 6th October 2012.

No action by Council & Shop Owners and Tenants

To me Pride is not something we take for granted, or overlook because we are too busy. There is no monetary value placed on pride and it is not for sale! Pride is an associate of Dignity, which is also! Not for Sale and cannot be bought.

The lack of Pride and Dignity, will usually be displayed by the visual pollution, which is accepted by those amongst us, who on one hand, criticise those who litter, when on the other hand they ignore their own visual pollution.

But! This is not just the lack of PRIDE and DIGNITY it is the obsession of but one owner, who we all know and he alone, is holding up the Contractor from resurfacing the Sanctuary Point customer car park in Paradise Beach Road. I first brought this to Councils attention in February 2011 and was told that it had already been brought to their attention prior to this and as it came under a private property issue, negotiations were in progress with the owners of the shops concerned.

Sixteen months on from my reporting of this issue and still the procrastination of Shop owners and a City Council continues to allow this visual slur and obvious safety issue, continue to develop into the brunt of despise from the shopping fraternity who frequent your establishments and the many other concerned citizens of Sanctuary Point who prefer to take their shopping dollars to other locations that appeal to them.

When will the one, be part of the all and give something back to those who have helped him in the past? Don't do it for Them ... do it for Yourself! You Know it's Right!

This morning when I woke and walked out into our garden, I saw a ray of light and wondered what it was. As I watched, it seemed to speak to me and beckoned me come near and as I stretched my arm towards, this little ray of hope, I thought if I could capture it, it may never go away. So try I did and tried some more and tried another time, I couldn't get my hand on it, so I tried a little more. I thought this must be special, as it was very hard to hold and it must be something precious, when I
